I am opposed to corporate takeover of the media. Already a handfull of corporations control too many media outlets. Please do not lift the ban on cross-ownership of media. A single company should not control the newspapers and broadcast facilities in the same market. It is important for democracy that the press remain independent and free. Susanne Willard